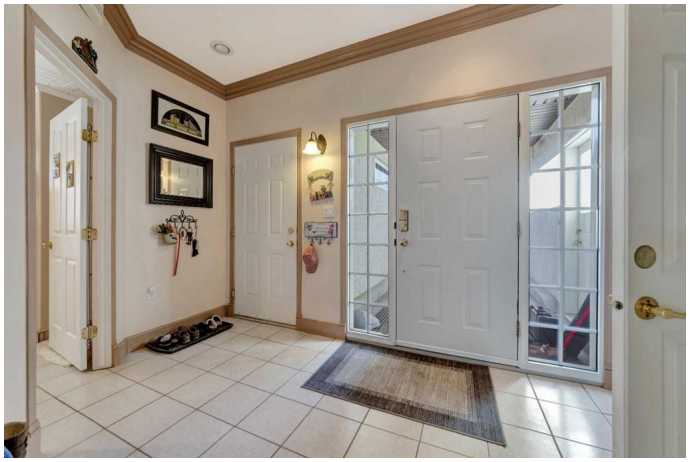
Residential on 0.13 Acres



Aurora, Lloydminster, Saskatchewan

Step into comfort with this thoughtfully designed ranch-style home, built in 2006 and offering true one-level livingâ€”no stairs, just simple, accessible space throughout. With 3 generously sized bedrooms and a spacious den that opens onto its own private deck, this home offers the flexibility to create the lifestyle youâ€™ve been dreaming of.

The primary suite includes a luxurious ensuite with a relaxing jetted tub, and a large walk-in closet secured by a solid wood door with a deadboltâ€”perfect for secure storage or peace of mind. Itâ€™s connected to the den by charming French doors with a pebble glass finish, adding both beauty and functionality.

This home is heated and cooled by an efficient geothermal system with four individual zones. It's quiet, clean, and cost-effectiveâ€”keeping you warm in the winter, cool in the summer, and free from the dust of traditional systems. (No gas service on the property.)

A front bedroom or den with its own private entrance makes an excellent space for visiting guests, a caregiver, rental income, a home business, or Airbnb or even a creative studio. A convenient Â¾ bathroom is located between the two front roomsâ€”great for hosting or multi-purpose use.

The heart of the home is the expansive kitchen, complete with custom hickory cabinets, a large walk-in pantry, broom closet, appliance garage, and garburator. Garden doors open to a spacious deck off the dining areaâ€”ideal for outdoor meals or enjoying the fresh air. A large island offers deep drawer storage and built-in outlets, while a bright window above the sink keeps the space light and airy.

Outside, enjoy a low-maintenance yard with three separate decks for soaking up the sun or relaxing with a book. Thereâ€™s a small garden area and a lovely selection of trees and shrubs, including two apple trees, a decorative crabapple, pin cherry, golden elder, ninebark, and six bordered flower beds with Quik-Kerb edging for easy care.

The oversized single garage is set up for hobbies or projects, with built-in shelving, workspace, power outlets, and even a handy spot for a freezer. The stucco exterior, triple-pane titanium windows, and concrete driveway (accommodating up to three vehicles) make this home as practical as it is attractive.

Located in a quiet, welcoming neighborhood, you can even enjoy watching local ball games from the comfort of your deck. With peaceful walking trails just steps away, this home offers a relaxing, community-centered lifestyle.
