About Lawrence Lake:

Spanning approximately 13.5 km² (3,350± acres), Lawrence Lake is one of the largest and most secluded lakes in the region.

Surrounded primarily by crown land and wildlife reserves, it offers a true "back to nature" experience. Enjoy boating, fishing, kayaking, canoeing, swimming, and hunting, with a public boat launch nearby. The surrounding area is rich with trails for hiking, ATVing, snowmobiling, and cross-country skiing, including access to the Trans-Canada and Peace River Wilderness Trails. The area is a haven for wildlife enthusiasts, with sightings of moose, elk, deer, bears, bald eagles, and more. At night, unwind under breathtaking sunsets and the aurora borealis.
