Residential on 12.01 Acres

NONE, Rural Paintearth No. 18, County of, Alberta

What a stunning 12-acre property just 3 miles west of Castor Alberta. This opportunity presents 12 usable acres, a complete 3 bedroom and 2 bath bi-level home with a 12x16 deck and a fenced dog run to top it off. This extremely well-kept and cared for acreage has a beautiful open concept and a wide open living and dining room and the perfect kitchen area to cook those beautiful meals. The extremely oversized primary bedroom that gives you a jet tub and a lot of space of all of your personal items. The home also has 2 rooms downstairs with a bathroom and an entertainment area too. The property location has a private entrance with a hardly used entry road giving you the privacy that everyone wants. The yard has a garage, shed, and C-can staying as well 60x40 shop to store any equipment you need too. The acreage has a new septic tank in 2018 and a new roof in 2016 also the water well was tested at 7 gallons a minute in 2011. The is also a generator that will kick in if you lose power for any reason at all. Behind the homestead are additional hookup if you wanted to add a shop, garage or even a new home to the property. Another bonus is the home having AC to keep you cool on these upcoming hot summer days! Located at the southeast corner of the property, there is a natural dug out that would be good for livestock if you decided to have them on the property. This opportunity offers so much to a potential buyer.
